

Flora of Western North America

POLEMONIACEAE

Phlox triovulata NA

32.587 -105.0805 (NAD83). U.S.A., New Mexico, Chaves Co., USFS Lincoln NF 20S 18E 11. 630m at 119° from Lower Long Water Tank.

Roadside, among rocks cleared by grading and cobble further from road At 5,940 ft, on a ridge, 4° slo. 102° asp.; geology: Sedimentary, carbonate.

Veg.: NA. taprooted but not apparently rhizomatous. Abaxial corolla limbs very pale, adaxil hot pink except near paler whitish eye.

1.5 hrs from Artesia NM via US-82 W and Russell Gap Rd. Follow US-82 W 20.5 mi. Turn L on 5th St 0.3 mi. Con't on Armstrong Rd 4.7 mi. Turn R on Trail Ends Rd 7.7 mi. Con't on Russell Gap Rd 15.4 mi. Turn L on Rim Rd 2.6 mi.

2271; 10 Aug, 2020. Fide: Flora Neomexicana, det.: , .

Collected under the auspices of the Bureau of Land Management